RESEARCH AND FIELDWORK PROJECTS IN EGYPT

My research in Egyptian archaeology focuses on three main topics and is based on the collaboration with several archaeological missions affiliated with different universities and international institutions such as the French Institute for Oriental Archaeology in Cairo since 2000, the German Archaeological Institute in Cairo (DAIK), the HeRMA team at the University of Poitiers, the CRES team at the Paris Sorbonne University (Centre de Recherches Egyptologiques de la Sorbonne) and several teams of the French CNRS (UMR 8152).

1 - Urban archaeology and analysis of settlement remains dating from the Old Kingdom to the New Kingdom

Since 2006 and co-director since 2010 with N. Moeller (Professor of NELC at Yale University) of the Tell Edfu Project (The Oriental Institute, University of Chicago, attached to Yale University since February 2020). This project focus on the excavations of pharaonic period settlement at Edfu, Upper Egypt, with a special focus on the urban phases of the middle of the 3rd to the middle of the 2nd millennium BC.

From 2013 to 2017 director of the Oriental Institute mission at Dendara and co-director with P. Zignani (CNRS) of the Joined archaeological and architectural project at Dendara (over the duration of IFAO-Oriental Institute MoU). Ongoing fieldwork centered on the settlement areas and diachronic development of the urban site at Dendara, with a special focus on the 3rd millennium BC phases.

From 2010 to 2013, director of the South Edfu Pyramid project which focuses on the survey, rescue excavation and protection program of the late Dynasty 3 - early Dynasty 4 Edfu provincial pyramid.

Since 2015, archaeologist consultant for the Oriental Institute Epigraphic Survey, Chicago House, Luxor, under the direction of R. Johnson (The Oriental Institute – University of Chicago). Ongoing survey and project of archaeological reexamination (in collaboration with N. Moeller) of Ay and Horemheb mortuary complexes. This program includes a specific research on the Dynasty 18 settlement contexts preserved under Ramses III mortuary complex at Medinet Habu. In addition, several operations have been conducted on the early Dynasty 21 ‘House of Butehamon’ (2016) or on the Western High Gate area (2018).

2 - Urban and domestic archaeology of the Late Period to the late Roman Period settlement sites, ca. 6th cent. BC - late 3th cent. AD (continuation of the questions my thesis research was based on).

Since September 2015, director of the Kom ed-Dahab Survey (The Oriental Institute, University of Chicago – Egypt Exploration Society, Delta Survey), on a large Hellenistic and roman settlement and harbor installation located in the Eastern Egyptian Delta (Menzala Lake area, Damietta governorate). One campaign conducted in September 2015.

From 2006 to 2015, senior archaeologist for the French excavation program at Tell el-Fara'in - Buto in the Western Nile Delta (University of Poitiers, CNRS, IFAO, French Ministry of Foreign Affairs), directed by P. Ballet (University of Poitiers then University of Paris X Nanterre) and U. Hartung (DAIK). This participation includes various surface surveys (2006-2007, 2010-2012) and being senior supervisor of the excavation areas P5, P9, P11, P12, P13, P14 and P15 (Hellenistic domestic quarter of the 4th to the 3rd cent. BC, pottery workshops of the Roman period, late 1st cent. BC to late 3rd cent. AD).

November 2007, surveyor at the site of Karanis, Hellenistic and Roman settlement in Fayum, under the direction of W. Wendrich (UCLA) and O. Kaper (RUG). Archaeological survey and topographic mapping of a large domestic area (survey conducted as part of my PhD research).

March 2007, study season at Dendara under the direction of R. Boutros (IFAO). Architectural and archaeological examination of the intra-muros domestic remains from the Greco-Roman, Coptic and early Islamic period and on the Roman enclosure wall (survey conducted as part of my PhD research).

3 - The archaeology of the harbor sites at the Red Sea and mining expeditions in the Eastern Desert and the Sinai during the Pharaonic period

Since 2011, senior archaeologist for the excavations at Wadi al-Jarf (Paris Sorbonne – CNRS – IFAO), harbor site of the Old Kingdom (early Dynasty 4) under the direction of P. Tallet (Paris-Sorbonne – CNRS).

From 2005 to 2015, senior archaeologist for the excavation at the harbor site of Ayn Soukhna (IFAO), under the direction of M. Abd el-Raziq (University of Suez), G. Castel (IFAO) and P. Tallet (Paris-Sorbonne – CNRS). Supervisor for the excavations of areas G10 and K14 (logistical installations and harbor site of the Old Kingdom (Dynasty 4 to 6), copper workshops of the Middle Kingdom).

ADDITIONAL ARCHAEOLOGICAL FIELDWORK EXPERIENCE IN EGYPT AND EUROPE

(SELECTION SINCE 1998)

For about 15 years, the participation to many archaeological projects within Egypt but also within the framework of European rescue and programmed excavations, in France and Italy, has significantly contributed to my formation as archaeologist, researcher and instructor in field archeology.

From 2008 to 2015, senior archaeologist and ceramicist in charge for the Pharaonic to the Greco-roman periods for the IFAO survey of the Wadi Araba area, Egypt, under the direction of Y. Tristant (Macquarie University, Sydney).

June to July 2014, senior archaeologist for the IFAO project à Abu Rawach, Egypt, under the direction of Y. Tristant (Macquarie University, Sydney). Excavation of mastabas M16 and M17 of the M cemetery dating from King Den (Nagada IIIC2, Dynasty 1).

December 2012, senior archaeologist and ceramicist for the Sinki Pyramid Project on the early Old Kingdom provincial pyramid at South Abydos, Egypt, in co-direction with H. Papazian (University of Cambridge).

September 2005 and September 2006, surveyor and ceramicist for the IFAO and Musée du Louvre excavation project on Coptic monastery and settlement at Bawit, Egypt, under the direction of D. Benazeth (Musée du Louvre).

February 2004, February 2005 and April 2006, ceramicist at Deir el-Medina, Egypt, for the study of the Coptic pottery material from 1970s' IFAO excavation at St Marc monastery, under the supervision of P. Ballet (University of Poitiers).

October 2003 to July 2004, archaeologist for the Franco-Egyptian Center (CFEETK) at Karnak Temple, Egypt, under the direction of Fr. Larcher (UMR 8153) and N. Grimal (College de France).

Participation in multiple excavation: Osiris catacombs from the Saite Period (with Fr. Leclere), 'Priests' houses' of the Late Period (with A. Masson), production and administrative areas of the Middle Kingdom (with M. Millet).

January to March 2003, archaeologist for the INRAP rescue excavation at "rue de la Marne" in Poitiers, France, under the direction of J.-P. Nibodeau (INRAP). Excavation of a Gallo-Roman market, cultic structure and habitation area (1st and 2nd cent. AD)

October to November 2002, archaeologist for the IFAO-Agha Khan Trust Company rescue excavations of the Wall of Saladin, Islamic Cairo, Egypt, under the direction of S. Pradines (IFAO). Supervisor of an area focusing on a habitat of the Fatimid–Ayyubid period and a cemetery of the Mameluk period.

January to February 2002, assistant ceramicist for the IFAO excavation at Ayn Soukhna, Egypt, under the direction of M. Abd el-Raziq (University of Suez), G. Castel (IFAO), and P. Tallet (Paris Sorbonne).

September to October 2000 and 2001, assistant ceramicist and small finds specialist for the IFAO excavation at Tebtynis, Egypt, under the direction of C. Gallazzi (University of Milan).

June 2001, archaeologist at Albinia, Italy, under the direction of F. Olmer (CNRS) and D. Vitali (University of Bologna). Excavation of a Dressel 1 amphorae workshop from the Republican period (2nd and 1st cent. BC).

July 1998 to July 2007, annual participation to the excavation at St. Gence, France, under the direction of G. Lintz (SRA Limousin). Senior archaeologist and trench Supervisor from 2000 to 2007 including the formation of university students. Excavation of domestic installations and production areas of the La Tène D period.

August 2004, archaeologist for the excavation at Puy Corent oppidum, France, under the direction of M. Poux (University of Lausanne). Excavations of a proto-historic sanctuary (Augustan period).

August 2000, 2001 and 2002, archaeologist for the excavation at Lattes, France, under the direction of M. Py (UFRAL – CNRS). Excavation on domestic and urban contexts (5th to 1st cent. BC)
